FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITY

2012-2013

Program Director: Dalia Lorenzo, MD

Sleep Fellowship

Our ACGME-approved Sleep Medicine Training Program is affiliated with the American Academy of Sleep Medicine accredited Multidisciplinary Sleep Disorders Centers at the University of Miami and Miami Veterans Medical Center. Our sponsoring institution is Jackson Health System, which is the largest hospital facility in the southeast United States. Our Sleep Medicine Fellowship program has been ongoing since 2005, and our program recently expanded to four fellows per year. The program combines resources from neurology, pediatric and adult pulmonary, ENT and OMFS.

Goals & Objectives for Training

- Training in clinical sleep medicine, including the full spectrum of adult and pediatric sleep disorders.
- Training in sleep laboratory technology, running of an independent sleep laboratory and technician training.
- Training in sleep laboratory medicine, including the skills to treat sleep apnea syndromes.
- Training in sleep research methodology and participation in ongoing research projects.

Prerequisite Training/ Selection Criteria

Board eligibility or certification in Internal Medicine, Neurology, Pediatrics or Psychiatry through an ACGME accredited program is a minimal requirement. Those who have additional boards are also eligible (e.g., Pulmonary Medicine, Clinical Neurophysiology).
